FLUSHER ORDERED OVER MAYOR'S VETO

SIX OF COUNCIL MOVE TO BUY STREET CLEANER.

WOULD LET COMMITTEE DECIDE ON CLERK TIFF

Alderman Raines Suggested Board of Arbitration. Bennett Remains a Month. Pass Usual Tax Levy.

What the Council Did.

Levied taxes for 1915.

Levied poll tax for 1915.

Approved monthly reports of city officials.

Approved annual library report.

Passed bill to buy $1,575 street flusher over mayor's veto.

Refused to ratify appointment of Chester Bennett for city clerk balance of fiscal year.

Passed ordinance to lay sidewalk east side of Market, Grant to Lieber street.

Granted permit to Standard Poland-China Record association to build on East Fifth street.

Granted Maryville Electric Light and Power company right to lay underground cable, four feet under ground, from the plant to the garment factory, Fifth and Market streets.

Received petition of three to pave Jenkins street from Market to Main street.

The dove of peace did not mingle with the councilmen and Mayor last night in the council's regular session, and as a result six of the eight aldermen passed a bill over the mayor's veto to buy a $1,575 street flusher, while Mayor Wright appointed Chester Bennett as city clerk for another thirty days.

The vote relative to buying the flusher against the mayor's wish was: For, Councilmen Tindall, Hahn, Garrett, Raines, Fisher and Dragoo; against, Peery and McDonald. The vote relative to the mayor's appointment of Bennett for the balance of the year was: For Councilmen Peery and McDonald; against, Councilmen Tindall, Hahn, Garrett, Raines, Fisher and Dragoo.

It was one harmonious session while the regular business of hearing and approving reports and bills and passing ordinance bill and permits were concerned, but when the proposition of buying or not buying the street flusher came up all was changed.

Mayor Explains Action.

The same deadlock showed to still be in existence, and the matter of eliminating it seems just as distant as a month or so ago.

It came about when Mayor Wright presented a statement to the council why he vetoed the bill to buy the flusher. In it he said:

"I do not believe the public is demanding the purchase of a flusher at this time, and that therefore the city should not be obligated for the full purchase price of the flushing machine.

"I believe further that an efficient method of cleaning and flushing the streets could be obtained with our present apparatus with very little outlay and expense.

"As we have no storm sewers to take care of the enormous amount of water used in flushing, the method is impractical at the present time, as well as being an aggravation and annoyance to the 'close in' residence districts.

Puts It Up to Merchants.

"However, if the merchants of the city or any number of them, desire the purchase of a flusher of this type, and would propose to pay a stated sum each, the total amount of which equals the full purchase price of the machine, then, in that event, it seems to me the city would be assuming enough, as well as meeting the proposition in a fair manner by assuming to pay the operating expenses, maintenance, repair and upkeep, which I believe will be greatly in excess of the amount estimated by your committee."

The bill was passed by a vote of 6 to 2 May 7, by the council, and vetoed today by the mayor. The contract provides that the machine shall be paid for as follows: On delivery, $395; August 1, 1915, $395; March 1, 1916, $395; August 1, 1916, $390.

On presentation of the mayor's announcement, Hahn moved and Raines seconded a motion to pass the purchasing bill over the mayor's veto. On vote it carried by a two-thirds majority, it being 6 to 2, making no vote to spare.

Flusher is Assured.

It was then proposed to pay the first installment of $395.

From that dissention the work passed right on to the matter of appointing a city clerk. Mayor Wright announced the appointment of Chester Bennett as clerk for the year. Before being put to a vote, Raines made the request that George Robb Ellison be allowed to present the legal phase of the situation as the six councilmen opposed to Bennett saw it.

Raines also said the six councilmen would be willing to have Mayor Wright also have some attorney present the phase as he saw it. Raines further suggested that a committee of three attorneys be named to consider the legal fight on city clerk appointment, and for both the council and the mayor to abide by that.

Wanted Committee to Decide.

This, Raines explained, could be accomplished by them naming one attorney, the mayor one, and the two voting for Bennett one. Further, Raines suggested that a circuit judge be allowed to pass on the case

Councilman Peery voiced the opinion that all such discussion as first proposed was useless, and then moved that the appointment of Bennett be confirmed. McDonald seconded the motion.

Before this was put to a vote Councilman Raines stated that six of the aldermen were opposed to Bennett as clerk and wanted Burt M. Rowley, but that the appointment of a third party might bring about unanimity between the council and mayor.

When the motion to appoint Bennett was voted on, six were against and two for.

Mayor Wright then announced the appointment of Bennett as clerk for the next thirty days.

Disagree Over Killion, Too.

J. H. Killion then was named as night policeman for thirty days. Councilman Dragoo then made a counter move to appoint Killion the remainder of the year. Peery declared he was out of order. In the muddle no vote was taken on either motion. Mayor Wright will go ahead and appoint Killion for the next thirty days, however.

Councilman Peery then moved to adjourn until next Tuesday night, June 8. A majority of the six opposed it, but lost

"I think this is a dirty mess. We are not getting heard on anything, it seems like," said Councilman Dragoo exasperatingly, as the move to adjourn carried.

Levy Annual Taxes.

But before all this turmoil the council did much. It passed an ordinance, deferred last time, to order a sidewalk installed on the east side of Market street from Grant to Lieber street. Only Dragoo dissented. He opposed until assured that the walk would be continued to Miriam cemetery.

The usual poll tax of two days work of eight hours each on the streets, or an equivalent of $2 for every able-bodied man between the ages of 21 and 50, was levied by the council for this year.

The following levies on all taxable property of Maryville for the 1915 taxes, were passed: General tax for current and ordinary expenses, 1½ mills on the dollar; library, 1 mill; water bond tax 1½ mills; water bond interest tax, 2½ mills; paving bond tax, ½ mill.

This makes the total tax of 7 mills, the same as last year. One change wa smade, however, by eliminating the paving bond interest tax and merging it with the paving bond tax, each of which last year was ¼ mill.

Baptists Want Paving.

The petition that Jenkins street from Main to Market streets, one block, be paved with bituminous concrete, was signed by Anderson Craig, H W. Hull and William Everhart, trustees of the First Baptist church. No action was taken.

The Standard Poland-China Record association was granted a permit to build on East Fifth street on payment of required fees.

The Maryville Electric Light and Power company was granted permission to lay an underground cable from the light plant, Fifth and Buchanan streets, east two blocks to Fifth and Market streets. It is to be laid four feet or more beneath the surface.

The usual monthly bills were allowed, with two exceptions, which will be investigated, as no requisition accompanied them. The regular monthly reports and annual library report also were received and accepted.

The council meets next Tuesday night to consider paving bids.

BIG SEED BUSINESS

SKIDMORE COMPANIES SELL PRODUCTS IN STATES.

CORN LEADS THE LIST

Importance of Careful Selection of Seed Explained by Andy Howden —His Own Experience.

The Kellogg Seed company of Skidmore, J. F. Kellogg, president, and G. F. Kellogg, secretary-treasurer, has sold 4,000 bushels of seed corn so far this year, it having been shipped to eleven different states. It was sold for $12,000. They also sold $7,500 of clover and alfalfa seed, a greater part of which was sold in Skidmore and vicinity. Garden seeds and grass seed were also disposed of by this company, and the amount of business done by this establishment this year is in excess of $25,000.

A great part of the seed corn sold by this establishment was purchased from Len A. Sanders of Whitesville and J. S. Corken & Son of Burlington Junction.

There is also another seed company in Skidmore, being that of the Howden Seed company. It is owned and managed by Andy Howden, and this year has sold 1,200 bushels of corn. Mr. Howden, in talking about his career in the seed business, says:

"Early in my career as a farmer I realized that to make farming pay on land that was constantly increasing in value, and with the cost of labor also increasing, it was necessary to keep up to a high standard the products raised on the farm. I began to see the importance of keeping and breeding the very best of live stock which would mature early and command the highest market price. I realized also that to produce good crops of grain it was not only necessary to prepare a good seed bed and to cultivate it carefully, but the seed also was a very important consideration.

"I began to be very careful in the selection of my seed corn, and in a few years noticed a great improvement in the quality as well as the quantity of my crop of corn. I entered 100 ears of corn at the corn show at St. Louis in January, 1902, and drew third prize of $50. At the exposition at St. Louis I won a gold medal on a display of six varieties and have won a prize every year since at the Missouri corn show at Columbia excepting the year 1914."

At the next election it is figured that the voters of the city will cast a big majority to do away with the saloons here.

$720 TO IMPROVE 80 MILES.

Hopkins Township Roads Can be Bettered Little, Trustee Says.

Clyde Melvin, trustee of Hopkins township, writing to the Hopkins Journal says he finds that the eighty miles of public roads of that township can be improved but little this year, with the small fund of $720 which is available for such improvement.

He reports there are but 160 poll tax workers in the township outside the city of Hopkins.

Continuing he says in part:

There are eighty miles of public roads in the township, which means there are but two poll tax workers to each mile of road. The tax is $4.50 per man, making in all $720 a year or 240 days work with team which allows three days work with one team to each mile of road in the township, including the bridge work. Our roads can never be what they should be until more money or more work is forthcoming.

Now, if each poll tax worker would generously donate at least one days work, it would amount to 160 days work for one man or $480 worth of work, thus bringing up the amount to be expended on our roads to $1200 or $15 a mile.

Most every one can easily afford to donate one days work and many can well afford to donate a week or even two weeks extra time on the roads for it would most certainly advance the value of your farms to say nothing of the satisfaction and convenience it would afford.

HELEN HOLT INJURED.

Six-Year-Old Daughter of A. J. Holt Thrown from Horse and Under Mowing Machine

Helen Holt, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, living west of the city, who was injured Thursday morning when she was thrown from the horse she was riding under the sickle guards of a mowing machine, was considerably improved today.

The child had started to the field on horseback to take her brother's raincoat. When her brother left the machine to don the coat the team at the machine became frightened. They frightened the animal the child was riding and she was thrown under the knives. The little girl received six cuts, one on the skull, which was thought to be critical. She is much better today and hopes are entertained of her recovery.

WAS TO HAVE MEET MONDAY.

Interested Parties in the Stephens Drainage Board to Arbitrate.

A meeting of the administrator, F. P. Robinson, and the creditors of the D. C. Stephens estate was to have been held Monday, but will probably be postponed on account of the inability of one or more of the interested parties being unable to attend. The Stephens estate is the owner of the dredge boat which is at present laid up near Pickering, an Eastern company holding a mortgage against it for $11,400.

An arbitration between the interested parties will probably result from the meeting.

The drainage district is also interested, as the drainage ditch was to have been completed by September 1 by the Stephens company.

U. S. CAN MAKE YOU FIGHT

Dick Bill Changes Militia to Include All Able-Bodied Men Between 18 and 45.

Under a federal law, known as the Dick Bill, the federal militia consists of every able bodied male citizen between the ages of 18 and 45 years of age in the states, territories and District of Columbia. Persons of foreign birth who have declared their intentions of becoming citizens are classes as citizens.

The federal militia is divided into two classes, the organized militia, generally known as the national guard of the various states, and the reserve militia.

The only exemptions from military duty are, in general, government officials and members of well organized religious sects whose creed forbids its members to participate in war in any form. The latter is understood to apply only to Quakers and Shakers.

The federal militia, organized and reserve, may be called to arms by the President whenever he deems it necessary. The militia cannot be sent to a foreign service without its consent. The regular army and volunteers, however, may be sent anywhere at the President's direction.

It was the object of the Dick Bill to give the President the same power over the militia as he has over the army and volunteers, but the Attorney General interpreted it otherwise.

Most states provide for the purchase of exemption from military duty. In Missouri a man liable to military service may furnish a substitute or pay into the military fund of the state $15 a month for as long as he would have served under arms.

Should the United States declare war it will not necessarily mean that the President will call out the militia. Volunteers will be asked first. The President will decide how many men are necessary and the apportion the levy among the different states. As far as possible the organized militia or national guard units, such as the Third Regiment, Missouri Infantry, will fill that call. Only in case sufficient forces cannot be colelcted by volunteering will the militia be conscripted.

Missouri has somewhere near 650,000 men in its reserve militia. That is th estimate of the adjutant general of the state. Under Germany's military system about half of that number would be trained in the use of arms.

In other words "Missouri" would have nine divisions, or two corps or one complete field army ready to move at any moment, with another contingent of the same strength to form a second line, supply re-enforcements and do necessary guard work. Missouri has about five thousand men in its national guard.—Kansas City Star.

TO RUN TRAINS SUNDAY.

These trains have been discontinued for the past week, owing to the high water between Pattonsburg and Chillicothe, and also five bridges washed out between Chillicothe and Sumner.

Praise for the Normal.

The following is from the Rosendale Signal, edited by Ed. Adams, who was a former student of the Normal school here:

The Maryville Normal opened its summer term Wednesday of last week with a large enrollment and Saturday 400 students were at work in the class rooms. This week the enrollment is expected to raise above the "high water mark" of the history of the school.

Mr. Richardson was re-elected week before last by the board of regents, for a term of two years. President Richardson is a man of "sterling worth" and has the many qualifications necessary to fill the position, he now holds, in a way that will reflect honor to himself and the district he represents.

The Maryville Normal has also a strong faculty equal to any and surpassed by no other like institution in the middle west.

With such executive ability, such a faculty, such a commonwealth and such a building, the only thing that remains to make the Maryville Normal forge ahead of other like institutions, is the loyal support of the people of the Normal district. Shall we not furnish it?

Will Have First Choice.

Ernest Graham of Diamond Branch school, who made the highest average grade in the county at the recent eighth grade examinations, will have his choice of five scholarships which are offered by the Maryville high school, Maryville Business college and Conservatory of Music. The second highest, Elizabeth Abels, St. Mary's, Clyde, will have second choice.

One more teaching aspirant was reported at the Business college today to take the regular teacher's examination. L. O. Latta of Skidmore is taking the regular examination, while two others, Elva Heflin of Parnell and Bessie Nicholsan of Hopkins, have reported to take the reading circle examinations for the renewal of a second grade certificate.

The county court will be in session next week, commencing Monday. They will consider building several bridges that were washed out last week by the high water.

EXPERT ADVICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

What is the approximate saving in current when using the two headlights switched on as dimmers instead of switched on full?

This all depends on the method of dimming used. If the lamps are dimmed by connecting them in series then the current consumption is cut in half if the resistance in the wires is neglected, and since this is small it may be. If two bulbs are used in the headlight, a large one in focus for country driving and a small one out of focus for city driving, the saving may be much greater, the small bulb taking about a fourth the current of the large one.

I am troubled with fire coming from the exhaust cut out underneath my car when running rapidly and shutting off quickly; also when pulling hard. It is not the regular exhaust from the engine, but a large blaze like gasoline fire which comes clear to the ground and spreads out several feet each way. Can you explain it?

It is difficult to say exactly what is causing this trouble without seeing the car. However, it may be that the valves are improperly timed or the mixture may not be correct. If the valves have been reset lately it would be wise to make certain that the timing is correct, but if they have not been reset they probably are all right. If the mixture is at fault it is a simple matter to adjust the carburetor. Possibly there is carbon in the exhaust pipe or it may be that you are running with the spark too late.

My front axle is bent about one and one-half inches from the spring seat to the outer end of the axle, a distance of about ten inches. How should it be straightened?

This axle should be heated to a cherry red heat and then straightened. The heat should be applied at the bend only, and as this is ten inches from the king pin bushings there is no reason why the latter should be heated and therefore no danger of them becoming enlarged. In fact, it is doubtful whether they would be enlarged even if exposed directly to the heat. It is not necessary to give the axle any heat treatment after it is straightened.

Does it make any difference how many teeth are in a bevel gear in relation to the gear it works in?

The relation of the number of teeth on the driving pinion to the number on the large gear gives the ratio between the number of revolutions the motor makes as compared with the number the wheels make when the car is traveling on high gear. Any change in either the pinion or bevel gear alters the ratio.

What is the cause of inner tubes becoming cemented or fastened to the casing so it is very difficult to remove them?

This is caused by neglecting to use enough tire talc between tube and casing. Whenever a tube is placed into a casing always sprinkle talc over the inside of the tire. Talc is a white powder, which is cheap, and may be bought at any supply store.

How do you fit babbitt bearings on crank shaft and connecting rods, either when putting in new ones or when taking up slack in old ones?

If only slightly worn bearings may be adjusted by removing shims or by filing the bearing caps. If the bearings are scored or worn out of round or if new bearings are put in the surfaces must be scraped.

If the bearing surfaces are in good condition and not worn out of shape a slight adjustment should be sufficient to make them tight. There are usually several shims under the bearing cap, and by removing these one by one the looseness will disappear. Remove only enough shims to make the bearing a snug but not a tight fit. When shims are not used the lost motion may be removed by placing the bearing cap in a vise and filing down the surface. In case too much material is removed a copper or paper shim or shims should be inserted to make the cap fit. In filing the flat surface of the bearing cap should be preserved, the file not only being held flat against the surface, but the movement of the tool being carefully executed.

If the bearing is scored, new or worn out of round it will need scraping. This should be done by an experienced man. Connecting rod bearings may be scraped without tearing down the motor, but if the main bearings require scraping the motor must be disassembled and the crank case placed upside down with the crank shaft and flywheel still in position. The main bearing caps are removed, and the crank shaft bearing surfaces are painted with a solution of Prussian blue. After rotating the crank shaft a few times and removing it the high spots of the bearings will be coated with the blue. These spots are carefully removed with a special scraping tool, care being taken not to cut too deep. Then the crank shaft is repainted and the operation repeated until the few large high spots have given place to more evenly distributed small ones, showing that the bearing makes contact at practically every point.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BERLIN REPORTS DEFEAT OF ALLIES

Asserts Trenches Recaptured From French.

BRITISH SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

WAR SUMMARY

Austro-German forces are following up the capture of Przemysl by a general offensive along the whole Galician front.

Berlin announces recapture of trenches lost to the French and a defeat of the British.

Austrians report the capture from the Italians of two summits on the eastridge of Kreuzberg.

German submarines are still showing much activity. The Danish steamer Cyrus, the British steamers Iona and Inkum and the fishing steamer Chrysphraesus and a trawler have have been sent to the bottom. The crews of all the vessels escaped.

London, June 5.—Berlin reports the recapture of a greater part of the trenches which had been lost to the French in the Le Pretre forest and also a defeat of the British near Givenchy.

Heavy losses, it is declared, were inflicted on the British and three of their machine guns were captured.

Field Marshal Sir John French commander in chief of the British forces, in reporting on this latter movement, says the British had occupied the German trenches during the night, but were unable to hold them after daylight, owing to the fire of the Germans.

According to a statement given out by the Austro-Hungarian military authorities, heavy fighting is now in progress along virtually the entire Galician front and the general situation is very favorable to the Austro-Germans. A decisive conclusion to the entire Russian campaign in Galicia is in sight.

"The Russian rear guards," the statement says, "are fighting relaying actions south of the Dneister river against the Austro-German forces advancing from Stry to cover the passage of the river. The Russians north of Przemysl are launching a series of the most desperate attacks against General von Mackensen's army. Here they are making use of new reserves, and at the same time they are exerting heavy pressure against the troops commanded by Archduke Ferdinand in the triangle between the San river and the Vistula river.

"The Russian offensive in southeastern Galicia, designed to relieve this situation, has been a complete failure."

In Paige Quality Lies Paige Triumph

The Paige Fairfield "Six-46" has proved the most successful, the best-selling, the most-commented-upon and the most popular six-cylinder motor car—of any price—introduced in this country this year. It has been easily and incontestably the most distinctive event of this American motor car season.

Those are sweeping claims. But it has been a sweeping victory. We doubt if any single motor car has ever so completely dominated its field as the Paige "Six-46" has dominated the field of ALL "Sixes," since it was announced last January.

It was the interest-center of all the Automobile Shows. It has already—in five months—won the distinction of being the most widely and studiously copied car on the market. It was unique in design, unique in value and unique in the immediate and discriminating popularity it won.

Last January we planned that the Paige "Six-46" should do these extraordinary things and hoped and believed that it would. The Superlative Quality and the Excess Value that we put into the Paige "Six-46" were the basis of our confidence. We counted upon the judgment of the American people to confirm this confidence.

But the spontaneous and universal response of the American motoring public has exceeded even our expectations.

The Proof of That Victory

Paige dealers the country over have sold out three and four extra allotments of the "Six-46."

For three months the huge Paige factory (scarcely more than a year old) has been working night and day.

We are now doubling even that enormous capacity, doubling the size of the new plant, to meet this overwhelming demand for the "Six-46."

What the Public Was Quick To Recognize

First—Quality—unprecedented Quality—and, to other motor car manufacturers, dealers and motorists—unbelievable Quality. That meant a combination of highest-grade features unequalled in any other "Six"—however much greater the cost. That was where we began with the Paige "Six-46."

Then the public was quick to grasp the beauty of the new European design, the luxurious seven-passenger roominess of the car, the riding luxury of the Cantilever springs, the Power and Flexibility of th ePaige-Continental motor (3½ x 5¼), the unquestionable excellence of the Rayfield carburetor, Gray & Davis electrical starting and lighting systems, the Bosch magneto, the Multiple disc-insert clutch and every distinctive feature that makes for elegant motoring. And the amazing price—$1395—for such Quality—was the crowning achievement.

We counted on that—but we are no less grateful for this overwhelming proof of popular appreciation.

You must already have seen this wonderful "Six-46." It is known everywhere now. But see it again at your Paige Dealer's—and you will not be content until it is yours.

Gives Second Domino Party.

The second afternoon domino and luncheon given this week by Mrs. C. D. Koch, Mrs. Hosea Torrance and Miss Martha Koch was given yesterday at the C. D. Koch home, on East Fourth street. As for the previous afternoon, a color idea of green and white was effected by using quantities of white syringea blossoms and white roses. The visiting guest favor was won by Miss Sheba Harris of St. Louis, who is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Berney Harris, and the prize for the high game score was won by Mrs. Oliver Kurby Bovard. During the entertaining hours the hostesses were assisted by Miss Mary Wooldridge, Miss Mildred Bellows and little Miss Mary Elizabeth Jones. Among the visiting friends present were Miss Harris and Mrs. S. J. Richardson of Pueblo, Col., who is the guest of Mrs. Isabelle Worst. About forty guests were entertained.

C. W. B. M. Entertained.

Mrs. U. S. Wright, Mrs. Rebecca Gray, Mrs. R. A. Strawbridge and Mrs. Edward Holmes entertained the C. W. B. M. of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon at the U. S. Wright home, on South Main street. One of the interesting features of the afternoon program, which was led by Mrs. Robert Lyle, was an article written by Mrs. H. A. Denton and read by Mrs. J. R. Brink. The reading was "Our Missionary Maiden With Reluctant Feet, or Our Service With Enehusiasm." It was unusually interesting, aside from the fact of being written by Mrs. Denton, who was the organizer of the Maryville society. Other readings were given by Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. W. A. Miller, and vocal solos were given by Mrs. Harry Todd and Miss Gertrude Wright. A visiting hour and refreshments were enjoyed after the program.

HADLEY MEN TO GO.

Are Being Asked to Attend to Corner-Stone Laying at Jefferson City.

According to the St. Joseph News-Press, friends of former Governor Hadley in that city are receiving letters from supporters of the Hadley boom for United States senator, urging them to attend the new capitol cornerstone laying at Jefferson City, June 24. Hadley is booked for an address on that occasion, and efforts are being made to give the occasion a decided pro-Hadley slant. The News-Press says that W. C. Pierce of Maryville will likely attend.

Republican activity in Northwest Missouri seems to be confined almost entirely to the "go" between Hadley and Walter S. Dickey, opponents for the Republican senatorial nomination. Hadley, in a general way, is favored by the Progressive element of the party, and Dickey by the standpatters; and up to date Dickey seems to have had rather the best of it, so far as publicity is concerned, as he has the support of the chain of standpat Republican newspapers. Hadley's friends, however, contend that their wing of the party will outvote the reactionary wing almost two to one.

Republicans who will admit affiliations with neither factions say that prior to the Chicago convention in 1912 Hadley would have had a walk-a-way in Missouri for the Republican nomination for senator. But his course before the convention, they say, displeased the stalwarts of his party, while his attitude after the convention was equally displeasing to the progressive element; and in consequence they think he will lose many votes from both factions.

Dickey, on the other hand, has always been a Republican of the old school, and there is said to be no question as to his getting the solid support of that contingent. The only question is as to whether the Dickey contingent is strong enough to swing the primaries.

Dr. Paul McMillan of Chicago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McMillan of this city, who recently underwent a serious operation at a hospital in that city, is recovering and will be removed Monday from the hospital to his Chicago apartments. HOUCHIN MAY RUN AGAIN.

"Feeling the Public Pulse" on the Gubernatorial Situation.

Jefferson City.—In a letter that he is sending broadcast to friends throughout the state, James A. Houchin, the millionaire manufacturer of this city and St. Louis, is virtually announcing himself as a candidate for governor in 1916. He was a candidate in 1912 in the primary in which Governor Major was nominated. In the letter Mr. Houchin says:

"I am not a candidate for the office of governor and do not know that I shall be. Friends by the hundred have solicited me to enter the contest for this honor * * * I do not want to make the mistake that another gentleman made three years ago. Apparently he did not want to run, said he would not run, but finally, too late, entered and was defeated. * * * The salary for the four years could not hire me for one, but the honor and the opportunity to do things to serve the people as I see it, things that others have not done, achievements upon which a man could look back with pride—this would be my reward. * * * I will be very glad to hear from you, and have your honest opinion upon this subject."

Will The War End By September First?

LLOYD'S, the great commercial giants of England, are betting even money that the war will end by September First.

Whether or not this is so, will have little effect on the consumption of goods by people in this country; in this county. The city man and country man keep right on eating and using wearing apparel just the same.

You can do as others are doing and reach the buyers throughout this county.

You can reach these people if you have not already been doing it and sell them your goods through advertising.

Newspaper advertising is by far the most economical.

The Democrat-Forum, day after day, offers you the opportunity that others are using.

For day after day with steady increase, the Democrat-Forum goes out to the buyers of the county.

Made Civil Admiralty Lord.

London, June 5.—The Duke of Devonshire has been appointed civil lord of the admiralty.

NOTE OF WILSON IS APPROVED

Cabinet Indorses President's Reply to Germany.

STANDS BY LAW OF THE SEA.

Germany Must Answer Promptly Yes or No, and Negative Reply Means Diplomatic Relations Severed—Will Be Sent Not Later Than Monday.

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson read to his cabinet the draft of a note to be sent to Germany, demanding in effect an adherence by that country to the humane principles of international law in the conduct of maritime warfare as affecting neutrals.

Comparatively brief, but described as insistent and emphatic, the communication will be cabled not later than Monday for presentation by Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign minister, Dr. von Jagow.

The cabinet approved the note as a whole. Minor changes in phraseology may be made.

The principle is fixed and unalterable—that the United States must know definitely and very promptly whether Germany intends to ignore visit and search rights and continue its practice of torpedoing vessels without warning, placing the lives of noncombatants in jeopardy, or whether rules of maritime warfare which have governed for centuries will be followed.

The alternative course is not stated, but it is now generally known that the United States, in the event of an unfavorable reply, will discontinue diplomatic relations with Germany.

Restates Position.

The note sets aside as irrelevant all the contentions of the German reply of last Saturday, except one—whether the Lusitania was armed—and restates the position taken by the United States previously that the Lusitania, after official investigation by competent inspectors, sailed from an American port with no guns aboard, either mounted or unmounted. It further calls Germany's attention to the fact that the Lusitania did not attempt any resistance, being torpedoed without a moment's warning.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Steel Ruling and International Situation Factors.

New York, June 5.—Bradstreet's says:

Final distribution, checked in the east by unseasonable weather, has been revived in the west by sunshine and warmth; speeding up is the rule in industrial lines and war orders, taken on close to a cash basis, tax the capacity of many plants, spread activity to other lines, make for competitive bidding for skilled labor, hence unemployment is steadily decreasing. At the same time crop news is favorable, and indicated yield suggests another record crop. The decision denying dissolution of the United States Steel corporation would receive great attention but for international affairs. In all, business for future delivery is growing steadily, though perhaps slowly, and at most places it is ahead of last year, when trends in general were downward. Collections in the major part of the country are about fair, money is easy; road sales, especially in the interior, are increasing and mail order trade is much better than a year ago.

German Garrison in Libau Is Isolated.

London, June 5.—Russian forces operating south of Libau have cut that city off from Memel, depriving the Germans of their base of supplies, says a dispatch from Petrograd. At the same time the Russians took Polangen and the village of Rutzen, south of Libau. Another Russian force is approaching Libau from the north. With this city enveloped, the Germans have an outlet only to the sea.

GERMANY AGREES TO PAY FOR GULFLIGHT

Gerard Cables Note From Berlin Promising Indemnity.

Washington, June 5.—Ambassador Gerard cabled the state department a note from the German government agreeing to pay an indemnity for the damage done by a German submarine to the American steamer Gulflight, torpedoed off the Scilly islands. The captain of the submarine said he saw no neutral markings on the vessel and was unaware that it was American.

As to the Cushing, the note says: "It has not yet been possible by means of an inquiry to clear up fully the case of the American ship Cushing. Official reports available report only one merchant steamship attacked by a German flying machine in the vicinity of Nordhind lightship. The German aviator was forced to consider the vessel as hostile because it carried no flag and, further, because of no recognizable neutral marks."

CZAR GRANTS REQUEST

Russia Will Permit Inspection of Prison Camps by Americans.

Washington, June 5.—Emperor Nicholas of Russia has responded favorably to President Wilson's personal letter conveying a request by Austria that provision be made for inspecting Siberian camps where Austrian prisoners are held.

Following unsuccessful negotiations through the usual diplomatic channels, Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian ambassador here, asked President Wilson about two months ago to send a personal letter to Emperor Nicholas. The request was the result of reports that Austrian civilians and prisoners of war were not getting proper treatment. The Austrian government asked that the inspection be conducted by American Red Cross agents.

The answer delayed because of the absence of the emperor from Petrograd, was brought here by Ray Baker, private secretary to Ambassador Marye.

One Zeppelin Flies Across London.

Berlin, June 5.—A Wolff bureau correspondent says he learns from a good source that in the last Zeppelin raid on London one airship reached Finchley, in the northern outskirts of London, and declares that it must, therefore, have flown over the greater part of the city. The correspondent says he hears from the same source that the damage caused by the raid was much greater than has been announced.

Not Warned to Quit Germany.

Washington, June 5.—A high official of the state department said positively that no instructions had been given Ambassador Gerard at Berlin to warn the American colony there to be ready to leave on account of possible severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States.

CARRANZA WILL SEND FRIENDLY REPLY

Vera Cruz, June 5.—"Appreciative, friendly and serene," such will be the tone of General Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note. After carefully considering the note, General Carranza concluded that it contains nothing other than hopefulness for the Constitutionalist cause, and it was officially announced that his reply to President Wilson would be handed to John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, for transmission to Washington within the next few days.

DRUG FARMING NOT BONANZA

Government Experts Say Care Must Be Used in Production of Herbs.

Although a large amount of money is spent annually for the importation of crude drugs, and the extermination of a number of valuable native drug plants is threatened, government specialists do not believe that the growing of drug plants offers any unusual opportunities for profit to the American farmer.

Drug plants are subject to the same diseases and risks as other crops and, in addition, knowledge of the best methods of cultivation and handling is less general than in the case of other and better known crops. In issuing a new bulletin, "Drug Plants Under Cultivation," the department of agriculture, therefore, warns farmers that in order to have the cultivation of drug plants financially successful in this country, the introduction of improved methods and the extensive use of machinery is probably necessary.

Under these circumstances the natural tendency will be to increase the production in the interest of economy. The demand for many drug plants, however, is so limited that if large areas are brought under cultivation there is considerable danger of overproduction. Prospective growers are urged, therefore, to acquaint themselves with market conditions before investing any considerable sum of money in this way.

On the other hand, the number of drug plants which may be grown in the United States is large. Many native medicinal plants which are found in their wild state in a few sections have been successfully cultivated in situations far beyond their natural range.

In suitable soil and under favorable weather conditions the following plants have done well under cultivation: Anise, belladonna, burdock, caraway, catnip, camomile, conium, coriander, digitalis, dill, echinacea, elecampane, fennel, henbane, horehound, pennyroyal, sage, stammonium, tansy and thyme.

VALUE TRUNKS AFTER JUNE 3.

Railroads Order all Baggage Assessed by Consignor to Comply With Law

On and after June 3, all persons who check trunks on railroad tickets will be obliged under the provisions of the Cummins act amending the inter state commerce laws to declare the value of their baggage. Railway officials ar enow working on plans to enable their subordinates to enforce the provisions of the act with the least possible inconvenience to theh traveling public, but they are not altogether sanguine that the new regulations will be popular with tourists and others who will check trunks when the rush to the seashore and country resorts begins.

The railroads now carry trunks and other baggage not exceeding 150 pounds in weight free with tickets on transportation and assume liability in case of loss or damage up to $100. They declare they cannot assume unlimited liability as permitted under the Cummins act, but will accept the alternative of assuming the $100 liability on each piece of baggage checked and insuring the passenger for all over that amount on a basis of 10 cents per $100, the rate laid down by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The amendment speaks specifically of "shippers," and although no mention is made of passengers checking trunks the commission has interpreted the act to mean that baggage constitutes a shipment in the meaning of the law. As shippers must sign a declaration as to the value of shipments it has been decided that each and every shipper of a trunk must declare the real value of its contents when he has his trunk checked. Any one who signs a declaration dishonestly, a railway official who has made a close study of the new law said yesterday, will be guilty of the misdemeanor. It is understood that the railroads will consent to accept declarations as to values from agents, which might be a valet or butler, or porter, or second cousin, or anybody who helps a shipper or passenger to make use of the checking privilege, but everybody has got to be careful that no false declarations are made or there is sure to be trouble.

Some time ago a young married woman of our town, whose name we omit, made a curious blunder. She put some eggs on to boil soon after breakfast one morning. They were still on when he came home at dinner time. Upon her husband asking what was in the saucepan, she answered. "Eggs for your dinner. They have been on since soon after breakfast. I have tried them with a fork and they are not boiled yet." His astonishment may rather be better imagined than described. And the mere mention of eggs now brings a rosy blush to her face.

A few years ago a woman could hardly go through the streets of Buenos Aires without running the risk of being insulted, and it was thought improper for girls to hold clerical positions or to act as typewriters, stenographers or clerks. Today many of the best business establishments in Buenos Aires employ women in all of these positions.

FLUSHER ORDERED OVER MAYOR'S VETO

SIX OF COUNCIL MOVE TO BUY STREET CLEANER.

WOULD LET COMMITTEE DECIDE ON CLERK TIFF

Alderman Raines Suggested Board of Arbitration. Bennett Remains a Month. Pass Usual Tax Levy.

What the Council Did.

Levied taxes for 1915.

Levied poll tax for 1915.

Approved monthly reports of city officials.

Approved annual library report.

Passed bill to buy $1,575 street flusher over mayor's veto.

Refused to ratify appointment of Chester Bennett for city clerk balance of fiscal year.

Passed ordinance to lay sidewalk east side of Market, Grant to Lieber street.

Granted permit to Standard Poland-China Record association to build on East Fifth street.

Granted Maryville Electric Light and Power company right to lay underground cable, four feet under ground, from the plant to the garment factory, Fifth and Market streets.

Received petition of three to pave Jenkins street from Market to Main street.

The dove of peace did not mingle with the councilmen and Mayor last night in the council's regular session, and as a result six of the eight aldermen passed a bill over the mayor's veto to buy a $1,575 street flusher, while Mayor Wright appointed Chester Bennett as city clerk for another thirty days.

The vote relative to buying the flusher against the mayor's wish was: For, Councilmen Tindall, Hahn, Garrett, Raines, Fisher and Dragoo; against, Peery and McDonald. The vote relative to the mayor's appointment of Bennett for the balance of the year was: For Councilmen Peery and McDonald; against, Councilmen Tindall, Hahn, Garrett, Raines, Fisher and Dragoo.

It was one harmonious session while the regular business of hearing and approving reports and bills and passing ordinance bill and permits were concerned, but when the proposition of buying or not buying the street flusher came up all was changed.

Mayor Explains Action.

The same deadlock showed to still be in existence, and the matter of eliminating it seems just as distant as a month or so ago.

It came about when Mayor Wright presented a statement to the council why he vetoed the bill to buy the flusher. In it he said:

"I do not believe the public is demanding the purchase of a flusher at this time, and that therefore the city should not be obligated for the full purchase price of the flushing machine.

"I believe further that an efficient method of cleaning and flushing the streets could be obtained with our present apparatus with very little outlay and expense.

"As we have no storm sewers to take care of the enormous amount of water used in flushing, the method is impractical at the present time, as well as being an aggravation and annoyance to the 'close in' residence districts.

Puts It Up to Merchants.

"However, if the merchants of the city or any number of them, desire the purchase of a flusher of this type, and would propose to pay a stated sum each, the total amount of which equals the full purchase price of the machine, then, in that event, it seems to me the city would be assuming enough, as well as meeting the proposition in a fair manner by assuming to pay the operating expenses, maintenance, repair and upkeep, which I believe will be greatly in excess of the amount estimated by your committee."

The bill was passed by a vote of 6 to 2 May 7, by the council, and vetoed today by the mayor. The contract provides that the machine shall be paid for as follows: On delivery, $395; August 1, 1915, $395; March 1, 1916, $395; August 1, 1916, $390.

On presentation of the mayor's announcement, Hahn moved and Raines seconded a motion to pass the purchasing bill over the mayor's veto. On vote it carried by a two-thirds majority, it being 6 to 2, making no vote to spare.

Flusher is Assured.

It was then proposed to pay the first installment of $395.

From that dissention the work passed right on to the matter of appointing a city clerk. Mayor Wright announced the appointment of Chester Bennett as clerk for the year. Before being put to a vote, Raines made the request that George Robb Ellison be allowed to present the legal phase of the situation as the six councilmen opposed to Bennett saw it.

Raines also said the six councilmen would be willing to have Mayor Wright also have some attorney present the phase as he saw it. Raines further suggested that a committee of three attorneys be named to consider the legal fight on city clerk appointment, and for both the council and the mayor to abide by that.

Wanted Committee to Decide.

This, Raines explained, could be accomplished by them naming one attorney, the mayor one, and the two voting for Bennett one. Further, Raines suggested that a circuit judge be allowed to pass on the case

Councilman Peery voiced the opinion that all such discussion as first proposed was useless, and then moved that the appointment of Bennett be confirmed. McDonald seconded the motion.

Before this was put to a vote Councilman Raines stated that six of the aldermen were opposed to Bennett as clerk and wanted Burt M. Rowley, but that the appointment of a third party might bring about unanimity between the council and mayor.

When the motion to appoint Bennett was voted on, six were against and two for.

Mayor Wright then announced the appointment of Bennett as clerk for the next thirty days.

Disagree Over Killion, Too.

J. H. Killion then was named as night policeman for thirty days. Councilman Dragoo then made a counter move to appoint Killion the remainder of the year. Peery declared he was out of order. In the muddle no vote was taken on either motion. Mayor Wright will go ahead and appoint Killion for the next thirty days, however.

Councilman Peery then moved to adjourn until next Tuesday night, June 8. A majority of the six opposed it, but lost

"I think this is a dirty mess. We are not getting heard on anything, it seems like," said Councilman Dragoo exasperatingly, as the move to adjourn carried.

Levy Annual Taxes.

But before all this turmoil the council did much. It passed an ordinance, deferred last time, to order a sidewalk installed on the east side of Market street from Grant to Lieber street. Only Dragoo dissented. He opposed until assured that the walk would be continued to Miriam cemetery.

The usual poll tax of two days work of eight hours each on the streets, or an equivalent of $2 for every able-bodied man between the ages of 21 and 50, was levied by the council for this year.

The following levies on all taxable property of Maryville for the 1915 taxes, were passed: General tax for current and ordinary expenses, 1½ mills on the dollar; library, 1 mill; water bond tax 1½ mills; water bond interest tax, 2½ mills; paving bond tax, ½ mill.

This makes the total tax of 7 mills, the same as last year. One change wa smade, however, by eliminating the paving bond interest tax and merging it with the paving bond tax, each of which last year was ¼ mill.

Baptists Want Paving.

The petition that Jenkins street from Main to Market streets, one block, be paved with bituminous concrete, was signed by Anderson Craig, H W. Hull and William Everhart, trustees of the First Baptist church. No action was taken.

The Standard Poland-China Record association was granted a permit to build on East Fifth street on payment of required fees.

The Maryville Electric Light and Power company was granted permission to lay an underground cable from the light plant, Fifth and Buchanan streets, east two blocks to Fifth and Market streets. It is to be laid four feet or more beneath the surface.

The usual monthly bills were allowed, with two exceptions, which will be investigated, as no requisition accompanied them. The regular monthly reports and annual library report also were received and accepted.

The council meets next Tuesday night to consider paving bids.

The Kellogg Seed company of Skidmore, J. F. Kellogg, president, and G. F. Kellogg, secretary-treasurer, has sold 4,000 bushels of seed corn so far this year, it having been shipped to eleven different states. It was sold for $12,000. They also sold $7,500 of clover and alfalfa seed, a greater part of which was sold in Skidmore and vicinity. Garden seeds and grass seed were also disposed of by this company, and the amount of business done by this establishment this year is in excess of $25,000.

A great part of the seed corn sold by this establishment was purchased from Len A. Sanders of Whitesville and J. S. Corken & Son of Burlington Junction.

There is also another seed company in Skidmore, being that of the Howden Seed company. It is owned and managed by Andy Howden, and this year has sold 1,200 bushels of corn. Mr. Howden, in talking about his career in the seed business, says:

"Early in my career as a farmer I realized that to make farming pay on land that was constantly increasing in value, and with the cost of labor also increasing, it was necessary to keep up to a high standard the products raised on the farm. I began to see the importance of keeping and breeding the very best of live stock which would mature early and command the highest market price. I realized also that to produce good crops of grain it was not only necessary to prepare a good seed bed and to cultivate it carefully, but the seed also was a very important consideration.

"I began to be very careful in the selection of my seed corn, and in a few years noticed a great improvement in the quality as well as the quantity of my crop of corn. I entered 100 ears of corn at the corn show at St. Louis in January, 1902, and drew third prize of $50. At the exposition at St. Louis I won a gold medal on a display of six varieties and have won a prize every year since at the Missouri corn show at Columbia excepting the year 1914."

$720 TO IMPROVE 80 MILES.

Hopkins Township Roads Can be Bettered Little, Trustee Says.

Clyde Melvin, trustee of Hopkins township, writing to the Hopkins Journal says he finds that the eighty miles of public roads of that township can be improved but little this year, with the small fund of $720 which is available for such improvement.

He reports there are but 160 poll tax workers in the township outside the city of Hopkins.

Continuing he says in part:

There are eighty miles of public roads in the township, which means there are but two poll tax workers to each mile of road. The tax is $4.50 per man, making in all $720 a year or 240 days work with team which allows three days work with one team to each mile of road in the township, including the bridge work. Our roads can never be what they should be until more money or more work is forthcoming.

Now, if each poll tax worker would generously donate at least one days work, it would amount to 160 days work for one man or $480 worth of work, thus bringing up the amount to be expended on our roads to $1200 or $15 a mile.

Most every one can easily afford to donate one days work and many can well afford to donate a week or even two weeks extra time on the roads for it would most certainly advance the value of your farms to say nothing of the satisfaction and convenience it would afford.

HELEN HOLT INJURED.

Six-Year-Old Daughter of A. J. Holt Thrown from Horse and Under Mowing Machine

Helen Holt, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holt, living west of the city, who was injured Thursday morning when she was thrown from the horse she was riding under the sickle guards of a mowing machine, was considerably improved today.

The child had started to the field on horseback to take her brother's raincoat. When her brother left the machine to don the coat the team at the machine became frightened. They frightened the animal the child was riding and she was thrown under the knives. The little girl received six cuts, one on the skull, which was thought to be critical. She is much better today and hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Interested Parties in the Stephens Drainage Board to Arbitrate.

A meeting of the administrator, F. P. Robinson, and the creditors of the D. C. The Stephens estate is the owner of the dredge boat which is at present laid up near Pickering, an Eastern company holding a mortgage against it for $11,400.

An arbitration between the interested parties will probably result from the meeting.

The drainage district is also interested, as the drainage ditch was to have been completed by September 1 by the Stephens company.

U. S. CAN MAKE YOU FIGHT

Dick Bill Changes Militia to Include All Able-Bodied Men Between 18 and 45.

Under a federal law, known as the Dick Bill, the federal militia consists of every able bodied male citizen between the ages of 18 and 45 years of age in the states, territories and District of Columbia. Persons of foreign birth who have declared their intentions of becoming citizens are classes as citizens.

The federal militia is divided into two classes, the organized militia, generally known as the national guard of the various states, and the reserve militia.

The only exemptions from military duty are, in general, government officials and members of well organized religious sects whose creed forbids its members to participate in war in any form. The latter is understood to apply only to Quakers and Shakers.

The federal militia, organized and reserve, may be called to arms by the President whenever he deems it necessary. The militia cannot be sent to a foreign service without its consent. The regular army and volunteers, however, may be sent anywhere at the President's direction.

It was the object of the Dick Bill to give the President the same power over the militia as he has over the army and volunteers, but the Attorney General interpreted it otherwise.

Most states provide for the purchase of exemption from military duty. In Missouri a man liable to military service may furnish a substitute or pay into the military fund of the state $15 a month for as long as he would have served under arms.

Should the United States declare war it will not necessarily mean that the President will call out the militia. Volunteers will be asked first. The President will decide how many men are necessary and the apportion the levy among the different states. As far as possible the organized militia or national guard units, such as the Third Regiment, Missouri Infantry, will fill that call. Only in case sufficient forces cannot be colelcted by volunteering will the militia be conscripted.

Missouri has somewhere near 650,000 men in its reserve militia. That is th estimate of the adjutant general of the state. Under Germany's military system about half of that number would be trained in the use of arms.

In other words "Missouri" would have nine divisions, or two corps or one complete field army ready to move at any moment, with another contingent of the same strength to form a second line, supply re-enforcements and do necessary guard work. Missouri has about five thousand men in its national guard.—Kansas City Star.

Praise for the Normal.

The following is from the Rosendale Signal, edited by Ed. Adams, who was a former student of the Normal school here:

The Maryville Normal opened its summer term Wednesday of last week with a large enrollment and Saturday 400 students were at work in the class rooms. This week the enrollment is expected to raise above the "high water mark" of the history of the school.

Mr. Richardson was re-elected week before last by the board of regents, for a term of two years. President Richardson is a man of "sterling worth" and has the many qualifications necessary to fill the position, he now holds, in a way that will reflect honor to himself and the district he represents.

The Maryville Normal has also a strong faculty equal to any and surpassed by no other like institution in the middle west.

With such executive ability, such a faculty, such a commonwealth and such a building, the only thing that remains to make the Maryville Normal forge ahead of other like institutions, is the loyal support of the people of the Normal district. Shall we not furnish it?

Will Have First Choice.

Ernest Graham of Diamond Branch school, who made the highest average grade in the county at the recent eighth grade examinations, will have his choice of five scholarships which are offered by the Maryville high school, Maryville Business college and Conservatory of Music. One more teaching aspirant was reported at the Business college today to take the regular teacher's examination. L. O. Latta of Skidmore is taking the regular examination, while two others, Elva Heflin of Parnell and Bessie Nicholsan of Hopkins, have reported to take the reading circle examinations for the renewal of a second grade certificate.

EXPERT ADVICE TO AUTOMOBILE OWNERS.

What is the approximate saving in current when using the two headlights switched on as dimmers instead of switched on full?

This all depends on the method of dimming used. If the lamps are dimmed by connecting them in series then the current consumption is cut in half if the resistance in the wires is neglected, and since this is small it may be. If two bulbs are used in the headlight, a large one in focus for country driving and a small one out of focus for city driving, the saving may be much greater, the small bulb taking about a fourth the current of the large one.

I am troubled with fire coming from the exhaust cut out underneath my car when running rapidly and shutting off quickly; also when pulling hard. It is not the regular exhaust from the engine, but a large blaze like gasoline fire which comes clear to the ground and spreads out several feet each way. Can you explain it?

It is difficult to say exactly what is causing this trouble without seeing the car. However, it may be that the valves are improperly timed or the mixture may not be correct. If the valves have been reset lately it would be wise to make certain that the timing is correct, but if they have not been reset they probably are all right. If the mixture is at fault it is a simple matter to adjust the carburetor. Possibly there is carbon in the exhaust pipe or it may be that you are running with the spark too late.

My front axle is bent about one and one-half inches from the spring seat to the outer end of the axle, a distance of about ten inches. How should it be straightened?

This axle should be heated to a cherry red heat and then straightened. The heat should be applied at the bend only, and as this is ten inches from the king pin bushings there is no reason why the latter should be heated and therefore no danger of them becoming enlarged. In fact, it is doubtful whether they would be enlarged even if exposed directly to the heat. It is not necessary to give the axle any heat treatment after it is straightened.

Does it make any difference how many teeth are in a bevel gear in relation to the gear it works in?

The relation of the number of teeth on the driving pinion to the number on the large gear gives the ratio between the number of revolutions the motor makes as compared with the number the wheels make when the car is traveling on high gear. Any change in either the pinion or bevel gear alters the ratio.

What is the cause of inner tubes becoming cemented or fastened to the casing so it is very difficult to remove them?

This is caused by neglecting to use enough tire talc between tube and casing. Whenever a tube is placed into a casing always sprinkle talc over the inside of the tire. Talc is a white powder, which is cheap, and may be bought at any supply store.

How do you fit babbitt bearings on crank shaft and connecting rods, either when putting in new ones or when taking up slack in old ones?

If only slightly worn bearings may be adjusted by removing shims or by filing the bearing caps. If the bearings are scored or worn out of round or if new bearings are put in the surfaces must be scraped.

If the bearing surfaces are in good condition and not worn out of shape a slight adjustment should be sufficient to make them tight. There are usually several shims under the bearing cap, and by removing these one by one the looseness will disappear. Remove only enough shims to make the bearing a snug but not a tight fit. When shims are not used the lost motion may be removed by placing the bearing cap in a vise and filing down the surface. In case too much material is removed a copper or paper shim or shims should be inserted to make the cap fit. In filing the flat surface of the bearing cap should be preserved, the file not only being held flat against the surface, but the movement of the tool being carefully executed.

If the bearing is scored, new or worn out of round it will need scraping. This should be done by an experienced man. Connecting rod bearings may be scraped without tearing down the motor, but if the main bearings require scraping the motor must be disassembled and the crank case placed upside down with the crank shaft and flywheel still in position. The main bearing caps are removed, and the crank shaft bearing surfaces are painted with a solution of Prussian blue. After rotating the crank shaft a few times and removing it the high spots of the bearings will be coated with the blue. These spots are carefully removed with a special scraping tool, care being taken not to cut too deep. Then the crank shaft is repainted and the operation repeated until the few large high spots have given place to more evenly distributed small ones, showing that the bearing makes contact at practically every point.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

BERLIN REPORTS DEFEAT OF ALLIES

Asserts Trenches Recaptured From French.

BRITISH SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

WAR SUMMARY

Austro-German forces are following up the capture of Przemysl by a general offensive along the whole Galician front.

Berlin announces recapture of trenches lost to the French and a defeat of the British.

Austrians report the capture from the Italians of two summits on the east ridge of Kreuzberg.

German submarines are still showing much activity. The Danish steamer Cyrus, the British steamers Iona and Inkum and the fishing steamer Chrysphraesus and a trawler have have been sent to the bottom. The crews of all the vessels escaped.

London, June 5.—Berlin reports the recapture of a greater part of the trenches which had been lost to the French in the Le Pretre forest and also a defeat of the British near Givenchy.

Heavy losses, it is declared, were inflicted on the British and three of their machine guns were captured.

Field Marshal Sir John French commander in chief of the British forces, in reporting on this latter movement, says the British had occupied the German trenches during the night, but were unable to hold them after daylight, owing to the fire of the Germans.

According to a statement given out by the Austro-Hungarian military authorities, heavy fighting is now in progress along virtually the entire Galician front and the general situation is very favorable to the Austro-Germans. A decisive conclusion to the entire Russian campaign in Galicia is in sight.

"The Russian rear guards," the statement says, "are fighting relaying actions south of the Dneister river against the Austro-German forces advancing from Stry to cover the passage of the river. The Russians north of Przemysl are launching a series of the most desperate attacks against General von Mackensen's army. Here they are making use of new reserves, and at the same time they are exerting heavy pressure against the troops commanded by Archduke Ferdinand in the triangle between the San river and the Vistula river.

"The Russian offensive in southeastern Galicia, designed to relieve this situation, has been a complete failure."

PAIGE
The Standard of Value and Quality

In Paige Quality Lies Paige Triumph

The Paige Fairfield "Six-46" has proved the most successful, the best-selling, the most-commented-upon and the most popular six-cylinder motor car—of any price—introduced in this country this year. It has been easily and incontestably the most distinctive event of this American motor car season.

Those are sweeping claims. But it has been a sweeping victory. We doubt if any single motor car has ever so completely dominated its field as the Paige "Six-46" has dominated the field of ALL "Sixes," since it was announced last January.

It was the interest-center of all the Automobile Shows. It has already—in five months—won the distinction of being the most widely and studiously copied car on the market. It was unique in design, unique in value and unique in the immediate and discriminating popularity it won.

Last January we planned that the Paige "Six-46" should do these extraordinary things and hopetl and believed that it would. The Superlative Quality and the Excess Value that we put into the Paige "Six-46" were the basis of our confidence. We counted upon the judgment of the American people to confirm this confidence.

But the spontaneous and universal response of the American motoring public has exceeded even our expectations.

The Proof of That Victory

Paige dealers the country over have sold out three and four extra allotments of the "Six-46."

For three months the huge Paige factory (scarcely more than a year old) has been working night and day.

We are now doubling even that enormous capacity, doubling the size of the new plant, to meet this overwhelming demand for the "Six-46."

What the Public Was Quick To Recognize

First—Quality—unprecedented Quality—and, to other motor car manufacturers, dealers and motorists—unbelievable Quality. That meant a combination of highest-grade features unequalled in any other "Six"—however much greater the cost. That was where we began with the Paige "Six-46."

Then the public was quick to grasp the beauty of the new European design, the luxurious seven-passenger roominess of the car, the riding luxury of the Cantilever springs, the Power and Flexibility of th ePaige-Continental motor (3½ x 5¼), the unquestionable excellence of the Rayfield carburetor, Gray & Davis electrical starting and lighting systems, the Bosch magneto, the Multiple disc-insert clutch and every distinctive feature that makes for elegant motoring. And the amazing price—$1395—for such Quality—was the crowning achievement.

We counted on that—but we are no less grateful for this overwhelming proof of popular appreciation.

You must already have seen this wonderful "Six-46." It is known everywhere now. But see it again at your Paige Dealer's—and you will not be content until it is yours.

HADLEY MEN TO GO.

Are Being Asked to Attend to Corner-Stone Laying at Jefferson City.

According to the St. Joseph News-Press, friends of former Governor Hadley in that city are receiving letters from supporters of the Hadley boom for United States senator, urging them to attend the new capitol cornerstone laying at Jefferson City, June 24. Hadley is booked for an address on that occasion, and efforts are being made to give the occasion a decided pro-Hadley slant. The News-Press says that W. C. Pierce of Maryville will likely attend.

Republican activity in Northwest Missouri seems to be confined almost entirely to the "go" between Hadley and Walter S. Dickey, opponents for the Republican senatorial nomination. Hadley, in a general way, is favored by the Progressive element of the party, and Dickey by the standpatters; and up to date Dickey seems to have had rather the best of it, so far as publicity is concerned, as he has the support of the chain of standpat Republican newspapers. Hadley's friends, however, contend that their wing of the party will outvote the reactionary wing almost two to one.

Republicans who will admit affiliations with neither factions say that prior to the Chicago convention in 1912 Hadley would have had a walk-a-way in Missouri for the Republican nomination for senator. But his course before the convention, they say, displeased the stalwarts of his party, while his attitude after the convention was equally displeasing to the progressive element; and in consequence they think he will lose many votes from both factions.

Dickey, on the other hand, has always been a Republican of the old school, and there is said to be no question as to his getting the solid support of that contingent. The only question is as to whether the Dickey contingent is strong enough to swing the primaries.

Dr. McMillan Improving.

Dr. Paul McMillan of Chicago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McMillan of this city, who recently underwent a serious operation at a hospital in that city, is recovering and will be removed Monday from the hospital to his Chicago apartments. As soon as able, Dr. McMillan will be brought to Maryville to remain until entirely recuperated.

Mrs. George F. Long and daughter, Helen, of Tarkio, arrived in Maryville this morning to visit Mrs. Long's brother, J. B. Jones, and family.

Mrs. Elizabeth French and son, Bennett, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Bennett, left this morning for Bolckow to visit friends until Monday.

HOUCHIN MAY RUN AGAIN.

"Feeling the Public Pulse" on the Gubernatorial Situation.

Jefferson City.—In a letter that he is sending broadcast to friends throughout the state, James A. Houchin, the millionaire manufacturer of this city and St. Louis, is virtually announcing himself as a candidate for governor in 1916. He was a candidate in 1912 in the primary in which Governor Major was nominated. In the letter Mr. Houchin says:

"I am not a candidate for the office of governor and do not know that I shall be. Friends by the hundred have solicited me to enter the contest for this honor * * * I do not want to make the mistake that another gentleman made three years ago. Apparently he did not want to run, said he would not run, but finally, too late, entered and was defeated. * * * The salary for the four years could not hire me for one, but the honor and the opportunity to do things to serve the people as I see it, things that others have not done, achievements upon which a man could look back with pride—this would be my reward. * * * I will be very glad to hear from you, and have your honest opinion upon this subject."

LLOYD'S, the great commercial giants of England, are betting even money that the war will end by September First.

Whether or not this is so, will have little effect on the consumption of goods by people in this country; in this county. The city man and country man keep right on eating and using wearing apparel just the same.

NOTE OF WILSON IS APPROVED

Cabinet Indorses President's Reply to Germany.

STANDS BY LAW OF THE SEA.

Germany Must Answer Promptly Yes or No, and Negative Reply Means Diplomatic Relations Severed—Will Be Sent Not Later Than Monday.

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson read to his cabinet the draft of a note to be sent to Germany, demanding in effect an adherence by that country to the humane principles of international law in the conduct of maritime warfare as affecting neutrals.

Comparatively brief, but described as insistent and emphatic, the communication will be cabled not later than Monday for presentation by Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign minister, Dr. von Jagow.

The cabinet approved the note as a whole. Minor changes in phraseology may be made.

The principle is fixed and unalterable—that the United States must know definitely and very promptly whether Germany intends to ignore visit and search rights and continue its practice of torpedoing vessels without warning, placing the lives of noncombatants in jeopardy, or whether rules of maritime warfare which have governod for centuries will be followed.

The alternative course is not stated, but it is now generally known that the United States, in the event of an unfavorable reply, will discontinue diplomatic relations with Germany.

Restates Position.

The note sets aside as irrelevant all the contentions of the German reply of last Saturday, except one—whether the Lusitania was armed—and restates the position taken by the United States previously that the Lusitania, after official investigation by competent inspectors, sailed from an American port with no guns aboard, either mounted or unmounted. It further calls Germany's attention to the fact that the Lusitania did not attempt any resistance, being torpedoed without a moment's warning.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Steel Ruling and International Situation Factors.

New York, June 5.—Bradstreet's says:

Final distribution, checked in the east by unseasonable weather, has been revived in the west by sunshine and warmth; speeding up is the rule in industrial lines and war orders, taken on close to a cash basis, tax the capacity of many plants, spread activity to other lines, make for competitive bidding for skilled labor, hence unemployment is steadily decreasing. At the same time crop news is favorable, and indicated yield suggests another record crop. The decision denying dissolution of the United States Steel corporation would receive great attention but for international affairs. In all, business for future delivery is growing steadily, though perhaps slowly, and at most places it is ahead of last year, when trends in general were downward. Collections in the major part of the country are about fair, money is easy; road sales, especially in the interior, are increasing and mail order trade is much better than a year ago.

German Garrison In Libau Is Isolated.

London, June 5.—Russian forces operating south of Libau have cut that city off from Memel, depriving the Germans of their base of supplies, says a dispatch from Petrograd. At the same time the Russians took Polangen and the village of Rutzen, south of Libau. Another Russian force is approaching Libau from the north. With this city enveloped, the Germans have an outlet only to the sea.

GERMANY AGREES TO PAY FOR GULFLIGHT

Gerard Cables Note From Berlin Promising Indemnity.

Washington, June 5.—Ambassador Gerard cabled the state department a note from the German government agreeing to pay an indemnity for the damage done by a German submarine to the American steamer Gulflight, torpedoed off the Scilly Islands. The captain of the submarine said he saw no neutral markings on the vessel and was unaware that it was American.

As to the Cushing, the note says:

"It has not yet been possible by means of an inquiry to clear up fully the case of the American ship Cushing. Official reports available report only one merchant steamship attacked by a German flying machine in the vicinity of Nordhind lightship. The German aviator was forced to consider the vessel as hostile because it carried no flag and, further, because of no recognizable neutral marks."

CZAR GRANTS REQUEST

Russia Will Permit Inspection of Prison Camps by Americans.

Washington, June 5.—Emperor Nicholas of Russia has responded favorably to President Wilson's personal letter conveying a request by Austria that provision be made for inspecting Siberian camps where Austrian prisoners are held.

Following unsuccessful negotiations through the usual diplomatic channels, Dr. Constantin Dumba, the Austrian ambassador here, asked President Wilson about two months ago to send a personal letter to Emperor Nicholas. The request was the result of reports that Austrian civilians and prisoners of war were not getting proper treatment. The Austrian government asked that the inspection be conducted by American Red Cross agents.

The answer delayed because of the absence of the emperor from Petrograd, was brought here by Ray Baker, private secretary to Ambassador Marye.

One Zeppelin Flies Across London.

Berlin, June 5.—A Wolff bureau correspondent says he learns from a good source that in the last Zeppelin raid on London, one airship reached Finchley, in the northern outskirts of London, and declares that it must, therefore, have flown over the greater part of the city. The correspondent says he hears from the same source that the damage caused by the raid was much greater than has been announced.

Not Warned to Quit Germany.

Washington, June 5.—A high official of the state department said positively that no instructions had been given Ambassador Gerard at Berlin to warn the American colony there to be ready to leave on account of possible severance of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States.

CARRANZA WILL SEND FRIENDLY REPLY

Vera Cruz, June 5.—"Appreciative, friendly and serene," such will be the tone of General Carranza's reply to President Wilson's note. After carefully considering the note, General Carranza concluded that it contains nothing other than hopefulness for the Constitutionalist cause, and it was officially announced that his reply to President Wilson would be handed to John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, for transmission to Washington within the next few days.

DRUG FARMING NOT BONANZA

Although a large amount of money is spent annually for the importation of crude drugs, and the extermination of a number of valuable native drug plants is threatened, government specialists do not believe that the growing of drug plants offers any unusual opportunities for profit to the American farmer.

Drug plants are subject to the same diseases and risks as other crops and, in addition, knowledge of the best methods of cultivation and handling is less general than in the case of other and better known crops. In issuing a new bulletin, "Drug Plants Under Cultivation," the department of agriculture, therefore, warns farmers that in order to have the cultivation of drug plants financially successful in this country, the introduction of improved methods and the extensive use of machinery is probably necessary.

Under these circumstances the natural tendency will be to increase the production in the interest of economy. The demand for many drug plants, however, is so limited that if large areas are brought under cultivation there is considerable danger of overproduction. Prospective growers are urged, therefore, to acquaint themselves with market conditions before investing any considerable sum of money in this way.

On the other hand, the number of drug plants which may be grown in the United States is large. Many native medicinal plants which are found in their wild state in a few sections have been successfully cultivated in situations far beyond their natural range

In suitable soil and under favorable weather conditions the following plants have done well under cultivation: Anise, belladonna, burdock, caraway, catnip, camomile, conium, coriander, digitalis, dill, echinacea, elecampane, fennel, henbane, horehound, pennyroyal, sage, stammonium, tansy and thyme

VALUE TRUNKS AFTER JUNE 3.

Railroads Order all Baggage Assessed by Consignor to Comply With Law

On and after June 3, all persons who check trunks on railroad tickets will be obliged under the provisions of the Cummins act amending the inter state commerce laws to declare the value of their baggage. Railway officials ar enow working on plans to en able their subordinates to enforce the provisions of the act with the least pos sible inconvenience to theh traveling public, but they are not altogether san guine that the new regulations will be popular with tourists and others who will check trunks when the rush to the seashore and country resorts begins.

The railroads now carry trunks and other baggage not exceeding 150 pounds in weight free with tickets on transportation and assume liability in case of loss or damage up to $100. They declare they cannot assume unlimited liability as permitted under the Cummins act, but will accept the alternative of assuming the $100 liability on each piece of baggage checked and insuring the passenger for all over that amount on a basis of 10 cents per $100, the rate laid down by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The amendment speaks specifically of "shippers," and although no mention is made of passengers checking trunks the commission has interpreted the act to mean that baggage constitutes a shipment in the meaning of the law. As shippers must sign a declaration as to the value of shipments it has been decided that each and every shipper of a trunk must declare the real value of its contents when he has his trunk checked. Any one who signs a declaration dishonestly, a railway official who has made a close study of the new law said yesterday, will be guilty of the misdemeanor. It is understood that the railroads will consent to accept declarations as to values from agents, which might be a valet or butler, or porter, or second cousin, or anybody who helps a shipper or passenger to make use of the checking privilege, but everybody has got to be careful that no false declarations are made or there is sure to be trouble.

Some time ago a young married woman of our town, whose name we omit, made a curious blunder. She put some eggs on to boil soon after breakfast one morning. They were still on when he came home at dinner time. Upon her husband asking what was in the saucepan, she answered. "Eggs for your dinner. They have been on since soon after breakfast. I have tried them with a fork and they are not boiled yet." His astonishment may rather be better imagined than described. And the mere mention of eggs now brings a rosy blush to her face.

A few years ago a woman could hardly go through the streets of Buenos Aires without running the risk of being insulted, and it was thought improper for girls to hold clerical positions or to act as typewriters, stenographers or clerks. Today many of the best business establishments in Buenos Aires employ women in all of these positions.
